prof. Josef Zatzko

Dear Sir Josef!

The Rectorate of Academician Stepan Demianchuk International University of Economics and Humanities expresses respect to you and sincere gratitude for your assistance in organizing the conclusion of treaties and establishing international relations with universities in Slovakia.

The representatives of the University were very pleased to have the opportunity to work with colleagues from Slovakia, to study the experience of scientists and professors of the University of Zilina, the University of Economics in Bratislava, the Slovak University in Nitra, the Trnava University in Trnava, the Bratislava Conservatory.

The IUEH has extensive experience in international cooperation. In particular, with universities in Poland, Hungary, Belgium, Spain, Belarus, Georgia, USA, Czech Republic, Finland, Lithuania, Germany. The Faculty of Journalism is a participant of the European program Erasmus +. In 2019, the journalism faculty team won the DESTIN grant.

The University has its cultural traditions. The University's artistic teams actively participate in international festivals and organize concert programs at the invitation of our international partners.

Vice-rector assoc. prof. Ternovyk N. A. characterizes you as a reliable partner, capable of qualitatively implementing mutually beneficial initiatives.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, the Rectorate, staff and students of the University once again thank you and your colleagues and express our confidence that the successful start of our cooperation will be the key to achieving further goals and the main goal of our joint projects.

We invite you, Mr. Josef, and your colleagues to visit Academician Stepan Demianchuk International University of Economics and Humanities at a convenient time for you.

Rector prof. A. S. Demianchuk
